

International Travel Photography Exhibits

International travel photography by Paula Cullison, a long time Moon Valley resident and member of the Sonoran Arts League, is exhibiting at a number of Valley locations. All works will be on exhibit until April 30 or early May.

Journey through the Emerald Isle (14 photographs) will be at Phoenix College Library;

To Cuba with Love (12 photographs) will be at Paradise Valley Community College Library;

Have Passport - Will Travel (20 photographs) will be at Maricopa County Library in Gilbert.

Paula also has 6 photographs at the ASU - Downtown Phoenix campus exhibit - Oh, the Places You'll Go!

Three works are included in the juried Art in Public Places exhibit at the Anthem Civic Center and another in the Community Art Show at the Desert Foothills

Library in Cave Creek where she will facilitate a discussion on Travel in Literature and Film on Thursday, April 13th from 10-Noon.

For more information visit: www.paulacullison.com
call: 602-863-9744 or e-mail: paulacullison@aol.com

Paula Cullison photography printed with permission.